Indecomm Learning Earns Technology Award from World HRD Congress

RapideL Is Best in Class for Rapid eLearning

News Highlights:

- Indecomm wins World HRD Congress Award
- RapideL named Best-in-Class Technologies – Best Rapid eLearning Tool
- RapideL is important technology for eLearning needs

Edison, NJ (July 17, 2014)—Indecomm Global Services, a leader in business process outsourcing, learning, and technology solutions, announces that its Learning Division has won an award for the proprietary RapideL Tool in the category of Best in Class Technologies - Best Rapid E-Learning Tool. The award was given at the 3rd Edition Best-In-Class Learning and Development Awards on June 27, 2014 at Taj Lands End, Mumbai by the World HRD Congress. This organization identifies and honors individuals, teams, and organizations leveraging learning and development. The award shows that Indecomm has significantly advanced workplace productivity and performance with its RapideL eLearning Tool.

“RapideL is the product of an enterprise wide effort to bring our customers state-of-the-art eLearning tools,” said Dinesh Poduval, Head of Learning Services, Indecomm Global

Services. “Corporate investment in human capital is essential in our information-based companies. RapideL is designed to give our clients an edge in efficient learning.”

RapideL complements Indecomm’s proprietary mortgage learning solutions. It provides for the creation of eLearning screens using pre-designed templates, which operate seamlessly with a SCORM (Sharable Object Reference Model) compliant Learning Management System. Together these solutions deliver user friendly but sophisticated administrative and interactive features.

RapideL is a web-based content authoring and reviewing platform with the capacity to develop eLearning courses quickly and utilize a multiuser workflow. As a result, users can employ RapideL for the development of Flash and HTML5 courses simultaneously through single authoring. RapideL reduces course development time by almost 40%, review cycles by 30%, and development costs by 40% to 60%.

“Our awards recognize the most advanced eLearning teams and organizations from the corporate and educational worlds as well as those in the public and private service sector,” said Dr. R. L. Bhatia, Founder, World CSR Day. “We are proud to recognize Indecomm’s contribution to learning and development with this Best-in-Class award.”

Advantages of RapideL:

- Web-based system allows users to access the system and author a course from anywhere
- Word-simulated storyboard templates that enable ease of authoring
- Single, global repository that allows efficient reuse of assets
- Variety of templates, including interactive templates (used for a typical learning course)

- Easy preview of courses at the click of a button
- Strong review mechanism
- Reduction in the course development time compared to traditional development time
- Reduction in the cost and effort associated with course development
- High quality output
