Indecomm Announces “Ask Me Anything” Webinar on Income Analysis

Industry Experts from Indecomm and Advanced Data will field income analysis questions in this free webinar on 11/08/2018

Edison, NJ, and Milford, PA – November 2, 2018 – Indecomm Global Services, a leading provider of business process as a service (BPaaS), software as a service (SaaS) technology, and learning solutions for the mortgage industry, announced open registration for its Income Analysis “Ask Me Anything” Webinar scheduled for Thursday, November 8, 2018 from Noon to 1 p.m. EST. Participation is free and registration is required. Industry experts Rachael Harris of Indecomm and Allen Johnson of Advanced Data® will field income analysis questions during the 60-minute webinar.

Rachael Harris is Director of Product Management for Indecomm and manages IncomeGenius®, the company’s automated income calculation and analysis software. Allen Johnson is CEO and Founder of Advanced Data®, a mortgage industry leader in enterprise-wide fraud prevention and enhanced verifications, including the company’s Income Tax Verification (ITV) service.

Participants will be able to ask speakers questions relative to income analysis in the mortgage lending process and its impact to closing mortgage loans quickly and accurately. Participants will be able to ask questions in advance or live during the session, such as:

- Are signed tax returns required for a sole-proprietor?
- My client has a W2 job and a side hustle. Does the side hustle matter for qualifying for a mortgage?
- Distribution. Solvency. Liquidity. What’s that? Why do I care?
- My client has seasonal overtime. What’s next?

The Income Analysis “Ask Me Anything” Webinar is scheduled for Thursday, November 8, 2018 from Noon to 1:00 p.m. EST. To register for free, visit <https://mortgage.indecomm.net/income-analysis-webinar>.
